

the probabilities of curing the parties of their mental diseases.

SEC. 30. All money applied for the use and support of the Western Insane Asylum, and the insane therein, [shall be paid] out of the public treasury on warrants drawn by a majority of the board of directors, or by the superintendent, and countersigned by at least two of the board of directors, and approved by the governor.

How money to be drawn from public treasury for support of asylum.

SEC. 31. All money and the proceeds of property given to the asylum, and all money arising from any estate which may be owned by the asylum, shall be paid into the public treasury, and all donations in which there shall be special directions for its application shall be kept as a distinct fund, and shall be faithfully applied as the donor may have directed.

Money belonging to asylum payable into public treasury.

Donations.

SEC. 32. In order to secure their constant supervision and attendance, the officers and employees of the asylum shall be exempt from serving on juries, in the militia, and from the duty of working on the public roads.

Officers and employees exempt from service on juries, &c.

SEC. 33. The board of directors shall cause all their proceedings to be faithfully and carefully written and recorded in books, and to this end may employ a clerk and pay him a reasonable compensation for his services. The books shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of the board of public charities and of the general assembly.

Directors to keep record of proceedings.

Clerk.

Compensation.

Books open to inspection.

SEC. 34. The board of public charities and the members of the general assembly shall be ex-officio visitors of the Western North Carolina Insane Asylum. It shall be the duty of the board of public charities to visit the asylum from time to time, as they may deem expedient, to examine its condition, and make report thereon to the general assembly with such suggestions and remarks as they think proper. And to said board of public charities and to the board of directors of the asylum only shall the superintendent be required to make reports or furnish statistics.

Board of public charities and members of general assembly ex-officio visitors to asylum.

Duties of board of public charities.

Fiscal year.

SEC. 35. The close of the fiscal year shall be the thirty-